President's Message

By Heather Canterbury

Transparency in all aspects of life, especially in governance and business, is crucial for building trust and security within societies. The words of the Dalai Lama, "A lack of transparency results in distrust and a deep sense of insecurity," resonate deeply in today's world. This powerful statement highlights the fundamental connection between transparency, trust, and security.

In the realm of governance, transparency is essential for holding leaders accountable and ensuring that they act in the best interest of the people. When the Director's actions and decision-making processes are shrouded in secrecy, it breeds distrust among the members.

This lack of transparency can lead to a deep sense of insecurity as people question the motives behind key decisions that impact their lives. Conversely, a transparent Board that openly communicates its actions and rationale fosters trust and confidence among the populace, contributing to a more stable and secure society.

The digital age has brought the topic of transparency to the forefront, as people demand access to information and insights. Social media and the internet have made it easier for individuals to uncover and share information, making transparency an even more critical aspect of modern society. However, the negative side of this would be the incorrect information that is spread so quickly through these mediums.

With these thoughts in mind, the Board wanted to inform all members of an issue that was brought to our attention. At the January 20th, 2024 Annual Meeting of Members, the Voter's Pamphlet did not adhere to Dreamland's by-laws. Namely, there was not an effective date for each proposed change. The effective date should have been listed as effective upon member approval. This misstep does not negate the votes showing what the membership wanted to approve. This was an oversight on the part of the Board. It is important to us that all members are aware of this and our promise to work diligently to make sure errors like this do not happen again.

Ultimately, the Dalai Lama's quote serves as a reminder that transparency is not just a lofty ideal but a practical necessity for fostering trust and security in our community. Embracing transparency can lead to a more cohesive and stable social fabric, where individuals feel secure in the knowledge that decisions are made with their best interests in mind. As we navigate an increasingly complex and interconnected world, the value of transparency in combating distrust and insecurity cannot be overstated.

Brats and Beans

By Kathie Chismar

More than 90 Dreamland residents, relatives, and friends celebrated Independence Day at Read Hall on July 4. It was great to see so many people who spent the summer in Dreamland, with many wearing red, white, and blue. Our Dreamland Singles members did a fantastic job. Congratulations to all the winners of our door prizes. Thanks to everyone who came out, and special thanks to our donors: Ranch Market for the watermelon, Becky Lamson from the Dreamland Quilting Club, Dave Warren for a Weed Control gift card, Heather Canterbury for the jewelry, and HRH Construction for gift cards. The 50/50 winner won $80.

The Singles Club sponsored this summer event for the last 9 years under the guidance of President Sydney Clark. Thank you, Syd and the Singles Club, for all your hard work. Special thanks to Sonny and Richard for working the grill in Arizona in July. Thanks to all who contributed to this event for the benefit of the Dreamland Villa Retirement Community.

COMPUTER CLUB SENDOFF FOR KAY HAWBAKER

by Terri Tiehen

Kay Hawbaker has moved to Minnesota to be closer to family after many years as a resident of Dreamland Villa. Kay was a DVRC member and a friend to many here in the community. In June, Kay began her new life at a beautiful senior living facility, Aurora on France, located in the heart of Edina, Minnesota.

During her time as a DVRC member, Kay was intricately involved with the Computer Club and was instrumental in keeping the Computer Club going strong for many years. On June 12, 2024, the Computer Club held an enjoyable and entertaining going away party for Kay at BJ's Brewery, put together by Megan Taggett, and it was well attended by current and past Computer Club members.

Kay's move came quickly once it became known to her that the apartment she wanted was available. Asked if I would ride along with her to Minnesota, I could hardly refuse the invitation and the opportunity to journey up to the north country, as Bob Dylan would put it! On June 20th, Kay and I headed out, traveling the first day through beautiful northern Arizona and on to Pueblo, Colorado. The second day was spectacular seeing the front range of Colorado before veering off toward the astounding Nebraska grasslands. While traversing the State of Nebraska and chatting about the amazing history of the Oregon/California and Mormon Trails that parallel I-80, we took a few minutes to stop at the original Pony Express Station in Gothenburg. What a thrill that was! The next day we enjoyed driving among the cornfields of Iowa and the equally beautiful Minnesota landscape. There was a refreshing, steady rain as we approached the Minneapolis metro area; a pleasant end to a most memorable trip across four states.

We wish Kay good luck in all her new endeavors and her new home. She will be missed here at Dreamland Villa!

Each time I sift through the years of Help Services articles, I am reminded of the Help Services commitment we've made to the folks of Velda Rose Estates and Dreamland Villa and the responsibility we have to serve these communities. It is a privilege for our president Patty Thorpe and I, and our Board members and monitors, to be a vital part of both communities in maintaining the highest standards of operation.

We have improved how we serve you, overcoming challenges of the past, and made plans for the future. Our hope is that our ability to serve you and your family have exceeded our commitment to each and every one. We are excited about the ways we're preparing to deliver on our mission statement that we have supported for the last 52 years. Our hope is that by paying it forward, our mission statement will hold true for generations to come.

All of the above being said, we are hopeful that we can get new people in both our communities to please consider joining us now as members of the board of directors, to help us take Help Services into the future.

We are open Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday from 9:00 am to Noon. Help Services is financed solely by your generous donations and by personal bequests. And as always, tax deductible. Just a reminder, we have a huge supply of adult incontinence needs at no cost to you. You can contact our office or Debra Traskos at 480-985-6021; this is the person and phone number to call during normal office hours if you wish to become a monitor. Check us out on our web page www.HelpServicesInc.org.

From this newsboy and our President Patty Thorpe and all the hard-working board members and monitors, stay cool and hydrated.

POSSE CORNER

By Joseph Favazzo

Who you know matters.

In our fast-paced world, it's easy to become absorbed in our own lives, often overlooking the significance of getting to know our neighbors and familiarizing ourselves with our neighborhood. However, fostering a sense of community and being aware of our surroundings holds immense importance for our safety, security, and overall well-being.

First and foremost, establishing connections with our neighbors creates a support system within our immediate vicinity. Whether it's borrowing a cup of sugar, keeping an eye on each other's homes during vacations, or simply exchanging friendly greetings, these interactions foster trust and camaraderie. In times of need, knowing that there are people nearby willing to lend a helping hand can provide a profound sense of reassurance and belonging.

Moreover, familiarity with our neighborhood extends beyond social connections; it directly impacts our safety. Understanding the layout of streets, knowing landmarks, and being aware of local businesses can prove invaluable during emergencies or unexpected situations. In times of crisis, such as natural disasters or accidents, this knowledge can facilitate swift and efficient responses, potentially saving lives.

Additionally, being aware of unfamiliar faces or activities in the neighborhood is crucial for maintaining security. Recognizing individuals who do not belong in the area or noticing suspicious behavior can help prevent crime and ensure the safety of our community. By staying vigilant and communicating with neighbors and local authorities, we can collectively work towards creating a safer environment for everyone.

Furthermore, knowing street names and addresses not only aids navigation but also facilitates communication with emergency services and delivery personnel. Providing clear directions can expedite response times during emergencies and ensure that essential services reach their intended destinations promptly.

In essence, taking the time to get to know our neighbors and familiarize ourselves with our neighborhood is more than just a social nicety—it's a fundamental aspect of community building and personal safety. By forging connections, understanding our surroundings, and remaining vigilant, we contribute to the resilience and cohesion of our communities, making them safer and more enjoyable places to live.

Year-Round Resident's Corner

By Megan Tackett

Summer is going by fast. Many wonderful events have occurred so we could all enjoy social activities like Ice Cream Socials, Pot-Luck dinners, Beans and Brats, Pancake breakfasts, and Saturday Coffee. All of the food coordination, preparation, and serving is done by volunteers who live in Dreamland.

There is a volunteer page where you can sign up, and whether you are a kee card holder or a resident, we need all the help we can get to keep our community thriving. Volunteering might be a nice way to introduce you to your neighbors and perhaps show you why Dreamland Villa is so special.

You can email any questions or concerns to: volunteer@dreamlandvilla.org
Or type this URL into your browser search bar to get you to the volunteer page:
<https://www.dreamlandvilla.org/volunteer/volunteer.cfm>

Our winter residents will be back soon and many of them also volunteer to help with events. We would be grateful if any resident could volunteer to keep our community moving forward.

As always, if you have any questions, please reach out to me.

SILVER SCREEN SPOTLIGHT

By Heather Canterbury

August will not only bring the heat but the chance to enjoy a myriad of great films. There will be everything from heartfelt romance to aliens to cult classic remakes. If you haven't returned to the cinema in a while, this is your time to rediscover the magic!

August 2nd offers two great options in films. First is Harold and the Purple Crayon, rated PG. Harold is a character in a book where he brings anything to life by drawing it. After he grows up and draws himself off the book's pages and into the physical world, he finds he has tons to learn about real life. Secondly is Trap, rated PG-13. In this M. Night Shyamalan thriller, a father takes his teen daughter to see her favorite singer in concert only to find they are at the heart of a deadly event.

Blake Lively brings the Colleen Hoover novel It Ends With Us to life on the big screen starting August 9th. Lily overcomes a traumatic childhood to embark on a new life in this beautifully done romance.

A chance meeting with a neurosurgeon sparks a connection, but Lily begins to see sides of him that remind her of her parents' relationship.

This is unrated at the time of rating but is expected to be PG-13.

If you are into video game adaptations, Borderlands starring Jamie Lee Curtis, Kevin Hart, Jake Black, and Cate Blanchett will open on August 16th. This all-star action adventure follows a ragtag team of misfits on a mission to save a missing girl who holds the key to unimaginable power. Opening August 16th and rated PG-13.

August 23rd brings the Rupert Sanders-directed remake The Crow. Bill Skarsgard plays Eric, who is given the chance to save his soulmate by sacrificing himself. He travels the world seeking revenge and to right the wrongs created. Rated R.

Book Review

By Anita Thompson

Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Cafe by Fannie Flagg

This is a fun, cute story, and an easy read. Whistle Stop is a tiny little town in Alabama. This book is really about relationships and how important they are, and how we can all be kinder and more caring of other people whether they look like us or not. It is about two women in the 1980s; gray-haired Mrs Threadgoode is telling her life story to Evelyn, who is in the sad slump of middle age. The tale she tells is of two women, the dare-devilish tomboy Igdie and her friend Ruth, who back in the thirties ran a little place called the Whistle Stop cafe. There is also a bit of the weekly news that is told frequently, which reminded me of the column a neighbor of my parents wrote in the local paper in the 50s and 60s telling what happened in the area. Every time we went down to visit my folks it was in the local paper as "news". It was interesting and kept people up to date with their neighbors. There is love, laughter, and even an occasional murder. If you are looking for light-hearted reading this is the book for you, a good summer read.

We are always happy to welcome newcomers into the Fused Glass studio and hope you will consider joining us in September. The snowbirds will be migrating south during the fall months too, so it will be good to see everyone.

Dreamland Villa Singles Club

By Kathie Chismar

The annual Brats n Beans celebration was held on July 4. Thanks to all the singles members who participated; cutting watermelon, soliciting donations, baking beans and deserts, precooking the brats, serving the food, and cleaning up, leaving our kitchen in spotless condition, and taking home the aprons and dish towels to launder. Of course, special thanks to Sonny and Richard for helping the singles by grilling the brats in the Arizona heat. Sydney Clark has been running this event for 9 years. She is a true hero, donating countless hours to Dreamland Villa. Thanks to all who came out to share the day with us. The profit from the event was turned in to the Dreamland Villa Retirement Community

The Singles resumed our usual activities with a trip to the Fountain Hills Theatre on July 7 to see Always, Patsy Cline. We enjoyed lunch at BJ's Brewhouse and dinner at the OSG Diner. We played bingo at WeKoPa and visited the Hall of Flame Museum in Phoenix with a stop at Arizona Falls. We took our monthly trip to the Hale to see Cinderella and spent a cool afternoon at the movies viewing Twister. We took to the road for a special outing to the Kitts Peak National Observatory and the Mini Time Machine Museum of Miniatures in Tucson. We went to the Dreamland Pancake Breakfast, with some members helping and supporting all the Dreamland Villa activities.

We will resume our monthly potluck on the first Tuesday in August. Our August plans include lunch at Paladino's Italian Eatery in Apache Junction and dinner at the Original Blue Adobe Grill in Mesa. We plan to attend the free Summer Concert Series at Chandler Center. We will go to the Hale for Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, and the Fountain Hills Theater for Neil Simon's Brighton's Beach Memoir. We will play cards and dominoes. You will find our members at the Dreamland Coffee Social, Card Bingo, and the pools.

Our meetings are always on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays at 9:30 am, so please feel free to drop in. And if you work at that time, join us for our potlucks on the first Tuesday so you can learn more about our club. For more information on any of this, feel free to email singles@dreamlandvilla.org. Please look for our calendars on the Dreamlandvilla.org web page, as well as at the office in Read Hall on the northwest corner bulletin board, and on the email blast as an attachment.

Bowling is on Tuesdays at 1:00 pm at East Mesa Bowling Alley on Broadway close to Ellsworth. It's a great time to practice and get ready for the next year's winter league.

Dreamland Villa Quilting Club

By Becky Lamson

Faye Miller made the charity quilt that is in our photo. It has such a great color combination and design. It will award the recipient a great quilt they can enjoy for years.

We are on our summer meeting schedule and it lasts through September. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of those months from 1:00 to 4:00 pm at Read Hall.

You're welcome to work on piecing or binding of a club charity quilt or on one of your own UFO's.

We always welcome your show-and-tell items.

New members are always welcome. If you have questions, please, give me a call at 480-202-7003 or email me at beckyNleslie@gmail.com.

Quilters Quote: Live life like a Quilt. Be soft when it's important, be warm when it's cold, be proud to show your true colors, and always scrap together when times are tough.

Julie Rickli deserves an A+

Julie is very knowledgeable about the market and explains our job as sellers very well. She always returned by my texts within minutes. And she was very helpful with suggestions on getting rid of stuff. We have sold several homes over our adult lifetime and Julie is one of the best realtors we have ever had!
